Yours truly, RUFUS J. IVRY.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Board of County Commissioners meet on Saturday.
Bagatelle is getting popular again, and keno has subsided.

The types of the city will have their usual 4th of July excursion.

There were no criminal cases before the Mayor worth taking notice of.

See notice of H. J. Hesselbach, the Coppersmith, who is closing out his stock of goods at cost.

They continue to resurrect shells on the government lot. Some two hundred have been taken out.

The peach crop in this county will be very short. The recent frosts have played havoc with it.

Many of our citizens express a determination to visit Beaufort during the early summer months.

We understand that the new residence of Jeff Fisher, Esq., is to be built of Baltimore pressed brick.

Bishop Lyman will return to this city on Saturday from his visitations in the eastern portion of this State.

We hear it repeated that the Summer schedule of the roads leading into this city will soon be announced.

Gov. Caldwell, Hon. W. A. Smith et al. left yesterday evening to attend the railroad meeting at Salisbury.

A number of mill-dams have been broken in this county within the past week and several small bridges swept away.

the Hearn-Spelman wing of the Republican party.

The new and handsome residence of T. H. Briggs, Esq., on Edenton street, next to the Methodist church, is very nearly completed.

Mr. John C. Maroon, a very skillful and experienced printer, has taken charge of the Job office of the Sentinel, and runs it in his own interest. We wish him success.

What steps are our Board of Trade taking towards aiding in the completion of the Seaboard & Raleigh Railroad. It is eminently proper that they should move in the matter.

It is said that the sewing machine men of the city are going to nominate a candidate for the Mayoralty.
They want to fuse with the insurance men. How's this for high?

A burning chimney in Eastern Wood created a little excitement yesterday afternoon in the immediate locality. It soon burnt out, and the alarm subsided in a few moments.

We understand the old "Club House," on the corner of Hillsboro and McDowell streets, is to be moved to the rear of the square on which it now stands, and made to front on Morgan street.

The Democratic State Executive Committee meet in this city to-day to nominate a candidate for the office large attendance is expected.

The friends of J. C. Mills, Esq., a member of the House of Representafrom his gold mine in Burke county.

There are now 16 persons in the jail of this county—four whites and twelve negroes. There is one female in the lot—a young woman. Four of these prisoners are under sentence to the Penitentiary and two under the death sentence—Blalock and Collins.

The managers of the North Carolina Department of the American Lightning Rod Company have been in consultation in this city, at the Yarborough House, for several days, and are likely to remain in session until Saturday afternoon. We hear that the showing of last year's business was a good one.

We call the attention of those desirous of obtaining a license to practice medicine in this State to the announcement of the Board of Medical Examiners of North Carolina, which will hold its annual session at Charlotte on Tuesday, the 19th prox., when the State Medical Convention also meets. Attention is also called to the error in our last issue as to the date of the meeting of said Convention. Papers copying the advertisement will please correct in conformity to date announced in this notice.

Sir Edwin Pearson, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the International Chamber of Commerce and Mississippi Valley Society, organized for the promotion of trade and commercial intercourse between Europe and the great Western and Southern States of North America, with headquarters at 445, Strand, London, has written a letter to Gov. Caldwell inquiring the names of the President and Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, with a view of exhibiting a number of articles of English manufacture at our next Fair. Gov. Caldwell has replied to the letter giving the required information, and assuring Sir Edwin that those bringing articles for exhibition at our Fair will be cordially welcomed and given every facility within our power, for carrying out their purposes satisfactorily.

AN INSURANCE MAN ON THE WATER QUESTION IN RALEIGH.—A gentleman connected with the fire insurance business recently visited this city and gives his ideas and impressions on our city, particularly as to the inefficiency of our Fire Department on account of the scarcity of water in the New York Insurance Monitor. The article in question contains a good many undeniable truths and valuable hints. It says:
"I arrived in the flourishing little city of ten to twelve thousand inhabitants a few days since, and found the citizens so agreeable and hospitable, and the place so pleasant and inviting, that I regretted to part from the one and leave the other.
"I found the time-honored Yarboro House had been much enlarged, and mine host, Blackwell, equal in suavity of manners and attention to his guests to any gentleman that ever presided over it. In equipments, vianar and the house, compare favorably with any first-class house in the Southern States.
"The appearance of the buildings of Raleigh, the broad streets, filled with vehicles and people moving to and fro with quick step, give the place the appearance of an active and bustling city. It contains ten churches, two deaf and dumb asylums —one for white, the other for colored (the first has some three hundred, and the latter about fifty patients); also an insane asylum, with some four hundred inmates; four banks, several sash and blind factories, and a planing-mill.
"The fire department consists of one steam engine and one hook and ladder company, manned by the whites, and one hand-engine and one bucket company, composed of colored men, all volunteers. The citizens are now and then regaled by parade of the fire department. The members are all uniformed, and make a handsome display when they appear upon the streets in line of march with all their insignia. The chief wears a hat that would have done honor to the brow of Hercules, even though it might have borne heavily on his neck, and carries a massive silver trumpet, with which he can make himself heard from the centre to the circumference of the city! With this outfit he leads the processions, the most admired of them all.
"Next comes the foreman of the hook and ladder company, a gentleman of admissible merit, followed by his neat, trim and tidy-looking men. Then comes the hand-engine and the bucket company. The appearance of the men is exceedingly neat, and reflects great credit on them.
"Fire insurance companies from abroad read of this extensive and handsomely equipped fire department, and do not doubt draw the inference as a matter of course, that the city has a supply of water with which to feed the engines in case of fire, but the contrary is the case.
"The idea of having a steam fire engine pulled by men power seemed ridiculous to my mind; but when I found there was really no water to feed it with, I was completely dumb-founded, never having supposed that any people could get a steam engine when they had not the water to feed it. The engine is a good thing in its way, but without water it is useless.
Underwriters from abroad are told of the fire department here—that the organization is good, etc., but they don't know that there is no water in the place except that afforded by the cisterns or wells, and in case of a fire of any magnitude, they would be utterly useless; each one would have to be introduced from time beyond a drop of water would have a salmon brick or a duck's back!
"Now, whilst the steam department is comparatively useless, the members are not deserving of censure, as they are men of commendable enterprise and generosity, contributed to the purchase of the steam-engine, and then to hand it over to the company, they did not seem to consider that the machine would be useless, and had a supply of water that was adequate for its demands, and that without that supply it would be of no service in the hands of any company, no matter how skillful they might be. They had been accustomed from time beyond memory to look to the wells and cisterns for their supply of water.
"There is no city of the same size in this country into which an abundant supply of water could be introduced, so small an expense, through the present system, which does away with reservoirs, and I sincerely hope that the citizens of Raleigh will take the matter of water supply into serious consideration, not to neglect the great security which it will afford them in cases of fires, but as to the immense benefit which they will daily reap by using pure fresh water for their family purposes, and for the irrigation of their half-starved crops. The present semi-purified water contained in their wells and cisterns.
"Raleigh has heretofore been a good paying point for fire insurance agents, but that must be ascribed to luck more than to the means hand for extinguishing fires. The rates prevailing are low—quite as low as in most cities with an abundant water supply and paid department, and are entirely inadequate to the risks undertaken by underwriters, for if a fire should once get under a fair headway in any one of the blocks of buildings in the business portions of the city, the firemen, with the scanty supply of water at their command, could do almost useless.
The fire would only be stopped for want of material upon which to feed its flames. The National Board should look to this place, and unless a water supply is introduced the premiums could be greatly increased. There is no city of this size, or half its size, in the north, east or west, that has not an abundant supply of water either through the old system of reservoirs or the present improved system, which affords a better supply at much less cost; and yet there is hardly one, and I believe none of them, where the insurance premium is so small as here."

FAIR ITEMS.—The Secretary of the State Agricultural Society is daily receiving letters from different sections of the country, apprising him of articles that will be sent to the next State Fair. Mr. Jno. T. Cowan, of Montgomery county, Va., writes that he will send two car loads of fine stock—that he "will bring something that will make the people of North Carolina open their eyes." Gov. Caldwell has received a letter from Sir Edwin Pearson, of London, representing the International Chamber of Commerce, desiring to make arrangements for the exhibition of English manufactures at the next Fair of this State. The Governor has answered the letter, extending a cordial invitation to Sir Edwin Pearson and to those he may represent.
Messrs. De Rossett & Co., of Wilmington, N. C., offer, as a special premium, one ton of the Carolina Fertilizer for the largest production of cotton, corn and wheat upon a given acreage.
Mr. James Vick, of Rochester, N. Y., offers a special premium of $50, for the first, second, third and fourth winners in the largest production of
acreage.
Messrs. H. & F. Blandy, of Zanesville, Ohio, write that they will be represented at the next Fair by the largest display of machinery ever exhibited in North Carolina.
James Norwood, Esq., of Hillsboro, N. C., offers $25 for the best exhibit of imported sheep.
Wm. F. Schultz, of Forsythe County, N. C., writes that if every county in the State having equal facilities for Forsythe, will go in the same proportion we will have the largest display ever seen in the State at the next Fair.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The Court met at 9 o'clock, a. m., his Honor, Judge Watts, on the bench.
The following cases were called:
State vs. Allen McPherson and Henry Wilson, burglary. The plea in this case was resumed by Gen. Cox for the State and T. R.
Purnell for the defendants. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of larceny.
State and Candis Lynch vs. F. H.
Hodge, bastardy. Continued. Defendant recognized.
George Little vs. Wm. Thompson.
The plaintiff is allowed to amend the complaint filed and make John T.
Walker and Hillsboro streets a son and wife parties. Defendant allowed until the October Term of this Court to file answer.
John G. Bagwell vs. Lottie A. Bag-well, divorce. T. M. Argo for plaintiff, no counsel. Defendant recognized.
W. H. Jones, petit juror, was excused from serving to-day.
The civil docket will be called today.

NUISANCE.—Those Billy-goats that are in the habit of browsing around Salisbury and Hillsboro streets are a highly perfumed nuisance, destructive to the enjoyment of the balmy breath of Spring, and hugely entertaining to numerous street Arabs, who have taught them some bad tricks, such as running after passers-by and frightening young ladies on their way to school. This latter impudence on the part of Sir William is truly derogatory to his character, and should subject him to imprisonment until he learns better manners.
A word to the police should be sufficient.

REPUBLICAN WARD NOMINA-TIONS.—The Republican Ward Nomination last night held their Ward meetings to nominate candidates for City Commissioners. The following are the tickets in the several wards: Middle Ward.—H. T. Clawson, K. P. Battle, and James Baker, col.
Western Ward.—J. C. Gorman, J. B. O'Neal, and James Jones, col.
Eastern Ward.—H. M. Miller, Charles Hunter, col., and Stewart Ellison, col.
Prairie or my Prairie! "Gone where the woodbine," &c. You had better go to the Hearn-Spelman wing, they will take you in!

K. P. BATTLE, Esq.—This gentleman requests us to state that he declines to allow his name to go before the State Democratic-Conservative Executive Committee, which meets to-day, for the nomination as candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Battle desires this announcement to be made as he has accepted the office of Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the University, and prefers to hold that office, which can be conferred upon him.

APPLICATION FOR A RESTRAINING ORDER.—TIE A. & N. C. R. R. MUDD-LEE, Gov. Caldwell yesterday noon received a telegram from Newbern, to the effect that the proposed members of the Board of Directors of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad had made an application before Judge Clarke for an order restraining the Directors recently appointed by the Governor from taking possession of the road. The Judge refused to grant the order.

THE MASONIC TEMPLE.—We learn that notice has been given to architects that plans for the Masonic Temple, to be built in this city, will be received on the 5th of May by the Building Committee, John Nichols, Esq., of this city, Chairman. The building is to be constructed of brick and to cost some $50,000.

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS.—Mr.
J. D. Newsom announces elsewhere this morning that he has just received a large and elegant stock of spring and summer goods, bought at the lowest point reached this spring.
Persons wanting dry goods, notions, family goods, boots, shoes, &c., should give him a call.

Registration yesterday was as follows:
Eastern Ward.—Whites, 9; Colored, 4.
Middle Ward.—Whites, 7; Colored, 2.
Western Ward.—Whites, 10; Colored, 6.

A meeting of merchants and railroad men is to be held at Atlanta, Georgia, on the 5th of May, to consider the question of direct trade with Europe.

The Medocs at their New Home.
The Medocs who recently played a leading part in our history have been almost forgotten by the public, but not by the ubiquitous "Interviewer." One of the fraternity has taken the trouble to follow the tribe to their new home in the Quapaw Reservation, Indian Territory, and he now describes what he saw during the visit. The war seems to have completely cowed them, and they are apparently resigned to their lot, such as it is. Scar-faced Charley and Bogus Charley, the first and second chiefs of this tribal remnant, are still in authority, and their commands are respected, but they no longer bear themselves with their former haughtiness. The males pass their time in drinking, smoking, shooting with the bow and arrow, playing ball, etc., evidently resolved to bestow no thought upon the morrow.
Steamboat Frank has become literary in his tastes, and is actually making some progress in learning to read.
But the squaws are less reconciled to the change. The eyes of the Princess Mary filled with tears when the name of Captain Jack was mentioned, while the widow of the departed chief still blackens her face and lives in seclusion. The land receives little attention from the tribe, though fences have been put up in several places.

THE BEAST IN HIS LAIR.—A correspondent describes Ben Butler at home in the following style:
"In domestic life no man could be more charitable, gentle and pleasing than General Butler. He reads everything, he remembers everything, he knows everything. By the charm of perfect courtesy and the brilliancy of his conversation, he grows almost handsome. His wife is a woman of intelligence and cultivation, with the manners of an empress. They live quietly, extending a delightful hospitality to a few favored friends, who say that the remembrance of that pleasant home, before the beautiful and accomplished daughter left it, was one of the most charming pictures in the world."

THE DAILY NEWS.

THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1874.
JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.

The DAILY NEWS is now the only paper in Raleigh that gives every morning the latest markets and other telegraphic reports. The public should note this fact.

The Virginia Legislature is considering the question of appropriating $15,000 to be used in inducing immigration to Virginia. The Richmond Enquirer warmly advocates such an appropriation.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Norfolk Landmark, writing from Elizabeth City, says: "We are still suffering very much from the scarcity of money." We know many sections that are suffering from the same malady.

WONDER if Governor VANCE, in his great lecture on the "Scattered Nation," addressed his audience as the "gentlemen of the Jewry?" The Petersburg Index-Appel asks this question, and the Governor must "rise to explain."

THE Conservatives of Orange County will meet in Hillsboro on the 9th of May to select candidates for the Legislature and for County offices. The meeting will also appoint delegates to the Congressional District Convention to be held in this place on the 2nd of June.

THE meeting in Salisbury to-day of the stockholders of the North Carolina Railroad will be one of much moment, as the question of consolidation is to be considered and the legislative measure will doubtless be adopted. Gov. CALDWELL will be present and we have no doubt there will be a large attendance, as much interest is felt in the movement.

THE last Charlotte Observer has a letter from Hon. T. S. ASKE, Congressman from that District. Mr. ASKE says he has never had any idea of being a candidate for Judicial honors in that District, and declares his willingness to serve another term in Congress should the nominating convention give him the nomination.

THE frost of Sunday night played sad havoc in the neighborhood of Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va. All the apples, peaches, pears and small fruits, including the strawberries, in bloom, were destroyed together with the tomato plants, potatoes and peas. The earth was frozen over two inches deep. Some of the truckers estimate the loss in fruits and vegetables at half a million dollars.

THE late "murder" and burial of nineteen bricks in the city of New York, by one DR. ULLING, more politely called LE CHEVALIER ERNEST DE BAIGNET, has created quite a sensation in that place. The attempt to thus defraud an insurance company out of $10,000, and which would have proven successful but for the impression that the supposed dead woman had been foully dealt with, is a rather novel one. The CHEVALIER cannot be tried for the murder of the bricks, but he will doubtless be roughly handled for his invention of this mode of swindling. What will the Gothamites do next?

Western North Carolina and its Advantages.
The Newton Indicator and Watchman, alluding to the advantages offered to immigrants in Western North Carolina, says:

"The immense mountainous and Piedmont region, being at least one-third of the State, has a climate which, for healthfulness, is unsurpassed by any, we believe, in the United States; being almost entirely free from all malarial diseases, and on this account, and also on account of the truly sublime mountain scenery, this region is becoming a great Summer resort, and a great many people from the more sickly sections are taking up their permanent abode here. The climate is all that can be desired."

"The water facilities for manufacturing, in all this region, are immense; and perhaps nineteen-twentieths of it is covered with forests of magnificent timber, consisting of the various species of Oaks, Hickory, Ash, Walnut, Pine, Chestnut, Hemlock, &c. The mineral deposits are iron, lime, gold, mica, lead, &c., and they are numerous and very valuable. Here, therefore, we have all the elements of a most varied and extensive manufacturing district which is almost entirely undeveloped."

"A Railroad will soon be completed from Wilmington on the Seaboard, via Charlotte to Shelby, and is to be extended across the Blue Ridge to Asheville, where it will intersect with the Western N. C. R. R., which at Salisbury connects with the N. C. R. R., and will, in all probability, soon be completed to Asheville and extended down the French Broad into Tennessee. These two Roads open up Western N. C. to the commerce of the world, and besides these others are projected and in process of construction from South Carolina—all pointing to this magnificent region."

"When we add that the larger portion of the land that is not too mountainous for cultivation, is either quite fertile, or susceptible of a very high degree of improvement, and that the lands are cheap—say from $2 to $10 per acre—we would ask why it is that capitalists do not invest their means here and develop our untold resources. Southern people have not the means, and we cordially invite capitalists from anywhere to come among us."

The Duke of Edinburgh and the Princess Alexandrowna contracted on the occasion of their recent marriage, that their children should be reared in the Protestant faith. Wouldn't it be a severe practical joke on this hopeful couple if they should have any trouble bed-trash at all?

The Project of the Change of the Gauge of the R. & D. R. R.
We have already alluded to the effort now being made by the Richmond and Danville Road to change the gauge of the road from Richmond to Greensboro, in order to conform to the North Carolina Railroad gauge. The Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg News, under date of Monday, says concerning it:

"The project of the change of gauge of the Richmond and Danville Railroad meets with objections from many of our wisest and best business men, though the body of the people do not seem to understand the threatened danger. It is believed that the sole object is, notwithstanding denials, to allow the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company to run its cars from Lynchburg into the Carolinas, and thus cut Richmond off directly from that section. If the gauge is changed, as proposed, not only will we lose much of the trade of the Carolinas, which we possess, but we will be cut off from the A. M. & O. Road; that is, built must be either broken at Burkeville or Petersburg. However, the desire of the gentlemen of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company is not likely to be granted, for there is a provision in the charter of the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad Company, which will prevent the Danville Railroad Company from changing its gauge without the consent of it and the Southside Company. His Royal Highness Prince 'Ho,' was in the city Saturday looking after the matter."

Plato Durham, Esq., as an Independent Candidate.
A correspondent of the Charlotte Home, writing from Cleveland county, gives an account of a Conservative meeting held at Shelby a few days since, at which Capt. PLATO DURHAM announced himself an independent candidate for Congress, declaring his intention of canvassing his District thoroughly from now until August. Says the correspondent:

"He stated that he had never been untrue to his State, his people, or his party. He was now a straight-out old line Democrat, just as he always had been. When hundreds of his people were taken in the coils of the Ku-Klux bill, and were being prosecuted and tried, and maltreated in every possible manner, he had resolved upon a certain line of conduct to rescue them. While carrying out his policy he had been abused and accused of deserting to the Radicals, &c., &c. He denounced the originality of these reports, and declared his intention of holding them up to the people as liars and slanderers from now until the first Thursday in August. Some of these calumniators were men who stood high in the State, and in the party; men who had sworn to aid and assist brethren situated as he was; yet, who had taken advantage of his helpless condition—his tied hands—to misrepresent and vilify him."

With Capt. DURHAM's politics we have nothing to do, only remembering that in 1868-'69, during the days that scalawagery and carpet-baggerism held such terrible sway in the State, he stood side by side with Capt. THOMAS JARVIS and others battling manfully for the true interests of the people of the State, suffering all manner of abuse for his efforts to oppose unjust legislation—he made for himself at that time a name which any North Carolinian might justly feel proud to own. But we deeply regret to see him now openly declaring his intention to array himself against the nominee of that party for which he has fought so nobly in other days to uphold—to see him setting an example that can only do harm and which should be frowned down this Summer wherever it may appear. Let PLATO DURHAM, and every other man in North Carolina who claims to be battling with the Conservative-Democratic party, stand manfully to his party; let there be no medium ground: "he that is not for us is against us;" and let the whole party of North Carolina go forth to win in the coming contest. We hope to hear of no independent action—there should be none, and our people should look to it that no man be allowed to defeat his party for any personal end that may be desired."

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF RAILROAD CORPORATIONS FOR KILLING.
—In Montreal, on Wednesday, judgment was given by Judge Ramsay quashing the finding of the Coroner of Quebec against C. J. Brydges, late manager of the Grand Trunk Railroad, for manslaughter, in consequence of the killing of Pierre Cauchon, at Point Levi. His Honor held that there was nothing to show that the Grand Trunk company were compelled to keep a gate and guardian at the crossing, and that although the employees of railways can undoubtedly be tried for manslaughter for faults of omission as well as commission, it would only be for omitting to do something they were legally compelled to do. Judge Sanborn agreed in the decision.

During the debate in the House of Representatives upon the currency bill, Mr. Wadsworth, of Virginia, advocated an increase of currency as the greatest need to the prosperity of the South and West. The people of the South, he contended, were more loyal than those of New England, because the latter said the greenback was a lie, while the people of the South had confidence in the Government and would take all the money they could get.

The manufacture and sale of phosphorus matches will be prohibited from this date after 1875. The reason for this proceeding is the large number of suicides in which phosphorus is the poison used, and the large percentage of fires caused by ordinary friction matches. Only such matches as require friction on a prepared surface will be permitted.

BIG DEBTS.—In 1818 the debts of the great civilized nations of the world amounted to $8,500,000,000. Now they amount to about $24,000,000,000, an increase which is attributed to the unprecedented development of the countries by expensive public improvements, but more especially by the maintenance of costly and destructive wars.

Prince Bismarck has denied the story of the interview with Herr Jokai. The Prince has also pronounced the statement of his opinion as given in the New York World, by a writer who claims to have conversed with him, to be false. He has, moreover, called the Italian General La Marmora a liar; and the English Dr. Russell has been treated in the same manner. The world has it that Prince Bismarck says and does things after dinner which he scarcely likes to acknowledge the next morning.

Free Cuba has a gloomy prospect. Captain General Concha forbids the existence of all political parties, and declares his intention to pursue a course of rigid severity towards the enemies of Spain. The honors heaped upon the bloodthirsty Burriel chieftain, and his hope to attain to fame by the same cruel means.

A gang of escaped convicts, fifteen in number, who got away from the railroads, are robbing in Campbell and Charlotte counties, Va.
